CITY MANAGER'S OFFICE

A MESSAGE FROM THE CITY MANAGER

Ferndale residents and friends,

First and foremost, to the residents and voters of Ferndale – thank you. Thank you for the trust that you place in your local public servants to deliver essential services to this amazing community. The recent Headlee Override Millage passed with a split of 58.05% in favor and 41.95% against.

Colleen O'Toole
City Manager

We are humbled and honored by this show of support for our general operations millage proposal. This outcome will allow the City to continue to provide a consistent level of municipal services while addressing the challenges of our many aging facilities.

As we look to the future, we will be especially mindful to deliver on the goals identified during our millage presentations over the last few months, including:

- Providing quality municipal services: We are committed to delivering high-quality municipal services in a way that is both effective and cost-efficient.
- Achieving excellence in Public Safety and Public Works: Our team will prioritize excellence within our core service areas by benchmarking activities and welcoming community feedback.
- Practicing responsible facilities and asset management: We will embrace the call to be responsible stewards of all facilities and assets in our municipal portfolio. Ensuring peak lifecycle operations and providing quality spaces for end users.

Even though the millage proposal has passed, we know that questions remain within the community regarding how we will make the best use of these dollars moving forward. Please know that our efforts to respond to those questions and concerns did not stop when the millage was approved. We are still here to serve you and deliver results that are in the best interest of the community as a whole. I am personally always happy to find the time to engage with residents directly and learn about how we can improve your experiences within this community.

Whether it is the Headlee millage vote, an item on an upcoming agenda, or an issue on your block, the staff of the City of Ferndale will continue to create an open and collaborative environment where residents feel welcomed to share their thoughts, concerns, and ideas. We hope you will seize this opportunity to be a part of an open and engaged City Hall.

All the best,
Colleen O'Toole

PUBLIC WORKS

TRASH AND RECYCLING DELAY

The following holiday impacts weekly curbside garbage and recycling collection:

- Labor Day, Monday, September 1, 2025

There will be no pickup on September 1, 2025, so please set your containers out one day late for the rest of the week.

YARD WASTE

Yard waste is collected on your regular trash pickup day through the week of Monday, December 15, 2025. Please put your grass clippings, leaves, small sticks, and weeds in a labeled, reusable container or a brown kraft bag. Labels are available at the DPW yard or Ferndale City Hall.

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITY

ROADS AND SIDEWALKS

If you have questions about the orange barrels in the street or spray paint on the sidewalk, visit ferndalepaving.com for a schedule of road paving and water main construction. For questions, please call the DPW front desk at 248-546-2519.

LEAD SERVICE LINE REPLACEMENTS

DPW is proud to report that 2,100 lead service lines have been replaced since 2021. There are still about 6,000 unknown lines in the system, so we need your help with this crucial step.

The City has created a self-reporting tool to allow residents to identify the service material inside their homes. Please fill out the survey and attach a few pictures of your meter. Visit bit.ly/ferndaleisl for the self-reporting tool and other lead service line information. This will help DPW understand the system and overall lower the cost of the program to ratepayers, like you!

STREET SWEEPING

Keep your eye out for the street sweeper over the summer. Street sweepers pick up loose debris on the streets to keep them clean and prevent clogged drains and flooding. If you see it around, please move your vehicle to give drivers a clear path.

RAINWATER AND FLOODING

The Kuhn Water Retention and Treatment Basin is the City's combined stormwater and sewer system. The system handles typical running water, flushing, and average rainfall, but when the rain pours, it can get overwhelmed. Not to mention, the effects of climate change have made rainfall more unpredictable. This can lead to flooding—but regular maintenance makes this less likely to happen.

As a reminder, the drain in your home is your responsibility. While the City does our part to maintain sanitary stormwater infrastructure, there are a few things you can do at home to protect your sewer line. Roots are the most common culprit of a clogged drain, but it also helps to be mindful of what you flush. If you do experience a basement backup, use water sparingly until the problem is resolved. Any additional water in the system may end up in your basement.

STORM CARE PROCEDURES

Preparing for severe weather events is critical. Here's what to do if a summer storm pours down:

1. If there are water backups in your area from heavy rain, let DPW know via SeeClickFix, or call the DPW front desk at 248-546-2519.
2. If backups occur after normal operating hours, call the Police Department's non-emergency line at 248-541-3650.
3. MOST IMPORTANT: Do not approach downed power lines. Call the Fire Department and let the professionals handle it safely.
4. For any emergency, always call 911.

PSU EXTENSION BARK

Invasive species watch! Are you familiar with the tree of heaven? It's a notoriously invasive tree/noxious weed that is difficult to get rid of, causes property damage, and worsens seasonal allergies. The tree of heaven grows rapidly, crowds out other species, and can give off an unpleasant odor. According to Penn State University, to permanently remove this invasive species, target the roots with systemic herbicides applied in mid-to-late summer (July to onset of fall color). Learn how to identify and control it at bit.ly/3HkupHC. Get to know the Ferndale Environmental Sustainability Commission at bit.ly/ferndalefesc.

RESIDENTIAL COMPOST PROGRAM

Register for the free program at bit.ly/3X4LQ14. Collect food scraps in a container of your choice. Empty your container regularly into the green compost carts at any of the six locations throughout the City. (Consider emptying it more in the summer months.) Bring your container home, rinse, and repeat.

FERNDALE

The City's free Compost Drop-Off Program is a great way to give back to the Earth. Composting turns food into healthy soil, and also reduces greenhouse gas emissions and the amount of waste sent to landfills. Plus, you'll have fewer rodents and pests lingering around your trash cans.

When in doubt, throw it out! Please do not include contaminants such as:

- Pizza Boxes (this is different than pre-2024 policies)
- Plastic grocery bags or plastic packaging
- Compostable products not labeled as BPI-Certified compostable. This includes products that may be labeled as compostable or have other compost certifications, such as TUV Austria.
- Produce stickers

For questions, please contact Logan Applebee, Zero Waste Manager, at zerowaste@ferndalemi.gov or 248-336-4236.

FREE WILDFLOWER SEEDS

The Ferndale Environmental Sustainability Commission (FESC) has been making Ferndale bloom with free wildflower seed mixes! The FESC curated a wildflower mix to support ecosystems and pollinators, assist with stormwater runoff, and enhance biodiversity. These free seeds are a great way to kick off a planned natural landscape in your yard, or enhance what is already there. Learn more about the Planned Natural Landscaping Program at bit.ly/3PICszJ.

The City would like to thank Oakland County Parks & Recreation and the Cooperative Invasive Species Management Area. Seed packets and instructions can be picked up at City Hall or by coordinating with Logan Applebee, Zero Waste Manager. Sign up for free at seam.ly/QuRb8f9N. Please email zerowaste@ferndalemi.gov with any questions.

SEEN ON SOCIAL

Did you hear the buzz? It was the Pollinator Parade!

Our dedicated volunteers of the Ferndale Arts and Beautification Commission hosted the first-ever Pollinator Parade at the Ferndale Area District Library with support from the Ferndale Environmental Sustainability Commission and the Ferndale Garden Club.

It was an afternoon full of information from pollinator experts, craft stations, giveaways, and photo stations. It ended with a parade of blossoming community members dressed as bees, butterflies, bats, ladybugs, and flowers. This community event took many dedicated hours to bloom and grow. It combines the visions and initiatives that complement the creativity and gardens found in Ferndale!
